New Apartments with a bonus package – Murapol Group invites to its Open-Door Day!

Discounts on apartments, outdoor parking spaces, smart home technology and insurance against the loss of permanent source of income or hospitalization are included in the price of the apartment – all of those constitute a bonus package offered by Murapol Group during the Open-Door Day. The event will take place this Saturday, 3 July in developer's offices in 14 Polish cities.

Being one of the leading housing developers in Poland, Murapol Group actively supports its customers in making purchase decisions. As part of its latest promotional campaign, the company offers a pool of 30 apartments with bonus packages, in each city of its operation. The value of a bonus package assigned to each apartment on the promotional list can reach up to PLN 64 thousand. To use the special offer visit one of our sales offices during the Open-Door Day this Saturday to reserve an apartment. Before you make the decision, follow the instructions at developer's website to see the list of premises on special offer.

- Every day, in numerous meetings in our sales offices we actively help people considering the purchase of an apartment in making their decisions. One of the cyclical events that are clients are always waiting for is the Polish Open-Door Day. In the upcoming, July edition we're offering a bonus package with a selected pool of apartments in each city. Not only is the offer attractive to people purchasing apartments for their own needs, but also for those purchasing them for investment purposes – says Łukasz Tekieli, the Sales Director at Murapol Group. On 3 July our advisors will be available to our customers from 10.00 a.m. to 5.00 p.m. in our sales offices located in 14 cities. We recommend that all interested parties read the promotional list of apartments and come to a meeting with the apartment already selected – adds Łukasz Tekieli.
